

Hello Iris!

It has been our pleasure to sponsor you these past thirteen years. We are very proud of all of your success. We know that God has wonderful things planned for you, and will continue to pray for you as you complete your University studies, and find a job that brings your meaning and meets your needs.

It is with sadness that we must at this time say “goodbye” to our sponsorship. I assure you that this has absolutely nothing to do with you – you are wonderful! As our own children are now all in college, and as we have taken on other financial commitments to charitable organizations, we need to focus our donations elsewhere.

Please continue to study hard and do your best. We are confident that God will continue to meet all of your needs. You have made us proud, and I’m sure you have made your family very proud as well. Love, Mr. Roger
